“Secrets For Living A Healthy, Wealthy & Happy Life...”

3 Reasons to Love October 2016!

Just because the dog days of summer have come to an end it doesn't mean you can't be in love with the crisp days of October. Especially when October is one of those months that offers lots of exciting things to add to your weekend list of fun. Here are a couple of suggestions for making this October a memorable one.

Go to Oktoberfest: This fun festival may have started in Germany, but with the surge in popularity of craft beers, you can pretty much find an Oktoberfest going on in any city or town near you. Often these don't just include access to great beer, but you'll also find fantastic food, music, vendors, and usually even some activities for the kids.

Find a Film Festival: These are gaining in popularity and October is rich in film festivals. Film festivals are great for lovers of cinema and adventurers alike. Here you can discover hidden gems and documentaries you might not get a chance to see otherwise. Often film festivals are surrounded with vendors and merry-making and if you're near a high profile festival, you might even get to see some celebrities. The New York Film Academy claims to have the most comprehensive list of film festivals, listed by location. www.Nyfa.edu/student-resources/film-festivals/

Lose Yourself In A Corn Maze: Corn mazes are a super fun fall tradition. Corn mazes are usually located at a farm and often have entertaining themes. Most will offer amenities besides just a maze. There may be pony or tractor rides, music, food vendors, and sometimes, even petting zoos. A trip to the country to visit a corn maze is worth the drive and can provide a fun October day of memory making.

However you spend your October, I hope it is a fun and safe one. And remember I am always available to help make your home a clean and healthy one. Check out my October special inside.

Cookie Talk

October is National Cookie Month! Don't Miss Out On The Fun Try These Chocolate Crinkle Cookies...

You can find this delicious chewy chocolate crinkle cookie recipe at www.BettyCrocker.com. One reader in the comments section under this recipe, stated that this is the same recipe her 86 year old mother had been using for years from her circa 1963 "Betty Crocker's Cooky Book". Now that's a fun fact, and just goes to show, "If it ain't broke, don't fix it!"

Ingredients for Betty Crocker's Chocolate Crinkles

- ½ cup vegetable oil
- 4 oz. unsweetened baking chocolate
- 2 teaspoons vanilla
- 4 eggs
- 2 cups all-purpose flour

- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ½ cup powdered sugar

1. In a large bowl mix the oil, chocolate, and vanilla. Add the eggs one at a time. Mix in the flour, baking powder, and salt. Cover and refrigerate at least 3 hours.
2. Preheat the oven to 350 degrees
3. Roll the dough into balls and coat with the powdered sugar. Place onto cookie sheet and bake 10-12 minutes.

You might notice that this month the name of the column was changed from "Healthy Talk" to "Cookie Talk". It's just a temporary change in honor of National Cookie Month and to get a chance to share this wonderful recipe from Betty Crocker. Next month you will find this column is back to normal. Enjoy this recipe!

Quotes For October...

"October is the fallen leaf, but it is also a wider horizon more clearly seen. It is the distant hills once more in sight, and the enduring constellations above them once again."

– Hal Borland, 20th Century American Author

"October is a fine and dangerous season...A wonderful time to begin anything at all. You go to college, and every course in the catalogue looks wonderful."

– Thomas Merton, 20th Century Author

7 Great Reasons To Adopt A Dog From A Shelter...

October holds many National Awareness campaigns, including Breast Cancer Awareness, but there is one campaign many dog lovers find close to their heart. And that's because October is Adopt a Shelter Dog Month. Here are 7 reasons why adopting a shelter dog is awesome so you can help spread the word...

#1: Save a Dog. According to www.aspc.org approximately 1.2 million dogs are euthanized each year. That's a staggering number of dogs being destroyed.

#2: Puppy Mills Are Super Lame. There is cruelty in mass breeding facilities. Often, the animal spends their life in a cage producing litter after litter and is destroyed when it is no longer a profit center. Conditions are often dirty and crowded and the breeding dogs aren't getting the companionship they crave from a loving family.

#3: Never Worry About Potty Training Again. Everyone knows what a pain it is to deal with potty training a puppy no matter how cute they are. When you adopt an adult dog from a shelter they usually have worked out the whole "potty training" thing and you get to skip that part.

#4: Your Dog Should Get a Clean Bill of Health. Most shelters examine a dog upon arrival and make sure they are healthy and vaccinated. Many also spay or neuter animals when necessary.

#5: Find Out If Fido Is Friendly Before You Get Him Home. Most shelters have observed enough about their dogs in residence to tell you the temperament of the animal and how they will do with children.

#6: Keep Some Of Your Hard Earned Cash. Adoption fees are usually nominal and a whole lot cheaper than buying from an exclusive breeder.

#7: Spread the Word. When you adopt a dog from a shelter you are encouraging others to do the same. Especially when they see what a cute and awesome dog you got!

Pumpkin Season Is In Full Swing! Try These Wonderful Pumpkin Delights...

Who doesn't love fall and all it's pumpkin deliciousness? After all Starbucks has practically turned their fall treat, the Pumpkin Spiced Latte, into an event. But lattes and pumpkin pie aside, what are some other ways you can take advantage of the abundance of this versatile fruit (according to Google!).

Pumpkin puree can be used to make a wicked creamy pasta sauce. Check out the "Penne with Creamy Pumpkin Sauce" recipe at www.MarthaStewart.com

Also pumpkin is a favorite to use in fall soups, and The Pioneer Woman serves up a beautiful example at www.ThePioneerWoman.com

Oooh and check out the recipe for a Pumpkin Cobbler at the website www.TasteAndTellBlog.com. You just might find this unique cobbler will be your new pumpkin pie for the holidays.

Whatever your pleasure, enjoy using the ever-versatile pumpkin this fall!

SPECIAL INSERT

Don't Roll The Dice On Your Chances For A Holiday Carpet Cleaning!

Hello friend and client! The holiday season is right around the corner and that means my schedule will be getting filled up fast. So please don't wait until the last minute to try to schedule your carpet cleaning. After all...

Why Gamble With Your Carpets?

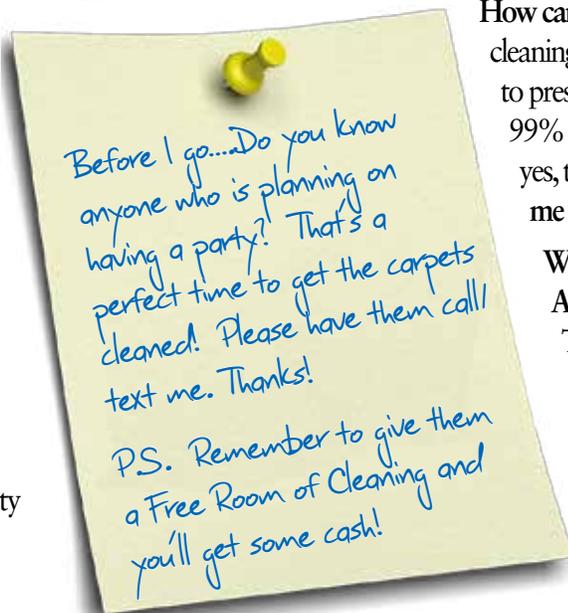

Your carpet is one of your home's biggest investments, and it does NOT have to appear dirty to be getting worn out by soils and dirt. These soils get deep into the carpet and grind away at the fibers, making the appearance of worn out, tired and dingy traffic lanes.

Your carpets need to be professionally cleaned

every 6-12 months to prevent permanent damage. Besides, dingy traffic lanes and/or dark spills and spots reflect a home that is not so tidy. With all the guests that frequent your home in the holiday season don't get caught with dirty carpets.

Don't Take A Chance On Missing Out On This Special Offer:

Call me to clean this month and here is what you will get...

- Clean, fresh, healthy carpet.
- You will have one less thing on your checklist in November and December.
- You will save $35.00 off your carpet cleaning
- BONUS: Call me anytime before November 30, 2016 to touch up spots and spills for FREE. (A $85 value!)

How can you resist? Now you know that your carpets need cleaning every 6-12 months even if they don't look dirty just to preserve their life and beauty. But if you are anything like 99% of my clients "life" catches up with your carpets, and yes, they start to look a little dirty. So don't hesitate to call me before October 31, 2016 because...

Waiting Until November or December To Call Me For A Cleaning Appointment Is Like Playing The Roulette Table!

November and December I get a rush of calls from clients wanting their carpets looking beautiful for guests and parties. Because of this rush I just can't fit everyone in. So beat the crowds and clean in October. Your carpets will be bright, clean and fluffy just in time for the holidays.

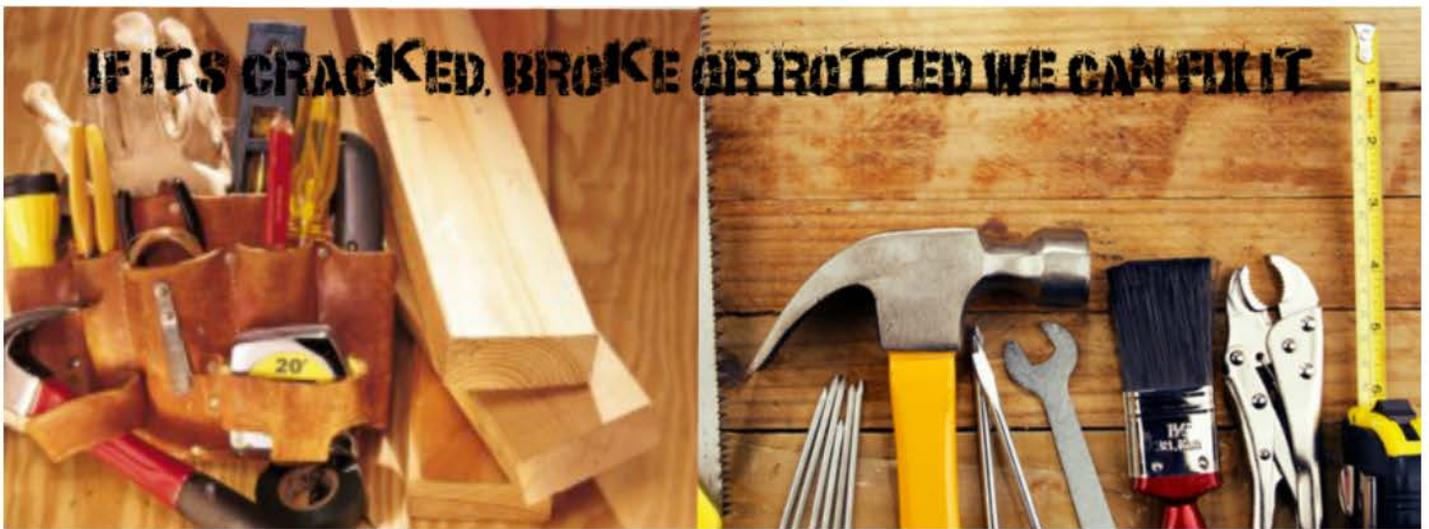

Beat the Odds And Clean Before 10/31/16 And...

- SAVE $35.00* Cash off your carpet cleaning!
- PLUS - FREE spots and spills cleaned up before your holiday guests arrive! ($85 value!) PLUS - You get one room with $50.00 Worth of Carpet Protection for just $30.00!
